Spirit Encouragement

I ask of you your whole spirit, soul, and body, yet so often I get merely you're the thoughts of your soul. I'm looking for your heart.

At times, your soul can be an contrary to the spirit that I have lavished in you. Though I have created all of you, it is the harmony of all I made you to be that brings out each to its greatest fulfillment. Exertion of your mind in prayer will concentrate too much power to your known faculties and will likely cause less reliance on what your spirit is saying. Lead in more with your spirit. Enjoy the wisdom of praise.

I can reach your depths when you enter in to My presence in holy surrender. Your depths of your spirit know far more in time of praise than hours of pondering and questioning. Your most profound insights are most often the product, or byproduct, of the deepest times of prayer. They are yours for the taking.

Once your mind grasps what the spirit is telling it, now you have true direction. It never works in reverse—mind first speaking to spirit. The mind is too finite to probe the deeper things of God.

So again I say, lead in with your spirit and connect with My Holy Spirit. I will show you more.

*For the Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God.
I Corinthians 2:10*
