

LESSON SIX — Prayer Session

Talk Summary

Dave & Zia share tips to giving and receiving prayer by being more aware of the Holy Spirit, who can help improve the gift exchange. There is special power when one person imparts life-giving love into another person's spirit.

Questions for Reflection

- In God's eyes, is blessing another person's spirit a truly powerful act?
- When my spirit is spoken to, does it re-emphasize my spirit already knows to be true?
- Does my spirit already know that I am God's.

- When another prays for me, must I receive everything?
- When another prays for me, must I receive anything?
- When I pray for another, must they receive everything?
- When I pray for another, must they receive anything?

- How does the conservative part of me block both the bad and the good?
- How does the liberal part of me receive both the good and the bad?
- When am I more open or more closed with certain people, places, and seasons?

- When exchanging prayer with others, is it good to exchange feedback?
- Can a well-meaning person push something that God does not intend?
- Is it a good reminder to say "receive what you and God sense brings life, and forget the rest"?

- Is it a good reminder to say “with your permission I bless your spirit”?
- Is it a good reminder to say “this is between you and God”?
- Is it good practice to get confirmation from both person’s spirits about what the Holy Spirit likes?
- Does God sometimes need to reveal to me my deepest desires?
- Is God my deepest desire?
- Is God more at my center than I?

Spirit Encouragement

Today is a glorious day for My people. Rejoice. I am alive and live and reign in your life.

The Lord longs for you to carry out his plan further today.

There is no waiting for mercy, not when you have the power and glory of God at your behest.

Let it unfold into your life and pour out into the world. Today.

What do you lack? Ask for that which you need. I know you want to do My work. Your life is a wonderful story that only you can live out, as purposed by Me from the beginning of time eternal.

I long to live in more My people as I have purposed, not according to meager convenience. Break out from your earthly constraint. Let Me have My way in you again, and experience more of the glory of God.

This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it.
Psalm 118:24
