

LESSON NINE — Father's House Selfie

Talk Summary

Dave explains the “reveal” of this foundational course: The Father's House is you.

Questions for Reflection

- Does Christ live in the same house as I do?
- Is my body the “temple of the Holy Spirit”?

- Is my spirit covenanted to Christ in this house, like being married?
- Can the aspects of my soul be thought of as the kids?
- Are gifts exchanged in the house, such as authority for the house?

- Are there angels assigned like highly-skilled chefs, butlers, artists, and guards to serve the household?
- Are there enemies—like burglars—that attempt to bring down the house?
- Can the soul kids be hurt and separated from the family?
- Can burglars trick other homeowners to trash my house?
- Can Jesus kick out squatters and heal the household?

- Are my siblings like houses on the same street?
- Do our houses have a common past?
- Does the land influence these houses?

- Is the Kingdom of God like a story?
- Is the history of humanity God's adventure romantic epic?
- Is Heaven with God a Happy Ending?

Spirit Encouragement

You have no idea to the degree I'm connected to you. If you did, you'd be more deeply joyful and peaceful.

You know I'm connected to you in a way that guides your every step. I am with you and in you. I see you, and speak to you and through you. Find as you yield your way that life is less trouble, easier, as I'm leading the way toward greener pastures.

Your current circumstance bears little, if any, resemblance to where you're ultimately headed. I have great plans, a future and a hope. You must face the wind for now. Bear up. Be bold and strong in My love, for I have not forgotten nor forsaken. Never have, never will. Trust more.

Look to Me in doubts and fears. Always look this way—it is My light that shows the way, the path to abundant life. But the price is your life as you know it. I know you are you ready and willing to surrender the average life for more of My life in you. I am God. You can always remember that for comfort. What can man do against My plans in a surrendered vessel, ready and willing to serve My Kingdom?

There is immense joy behind this wall of the natural. If only you knew and could trust when I tell you what's there.

I am in control—is that not enough to rejoice in? God, the one who made it all, who makes it all happen with perfect rhyme and reason. Even chaos has a place in the plans for My people. Nothing is haphazard, nothing without a reason and a purpose.

I am ever working My ways in and through you. You are vital to My call in this universe.

Let Me take it up for you. Let us run together and flee the ways of the past. Await, victory comes in the morning of My light. Live on!

*No eye has seen, no ear has heard, no mind has conceived what God has prepared for those who love him.
I Corinthians 2:9*

Additional Resources

- davezia.com
- Foundation of the Father's House Course
- Healing in the Father's House—Facebook Community
- DaveZia Curriculum Landing Page